Thank you for sparing your valuable time with delegation of Laghu Udyog Bharati.

ASHOK AGARWAL

This is regarding transfer of EPR liability of plastic producers who have sold the material to medium and large brand owners.

This is to further inform you for FY 21-22, the producers who have sold the material to medium and large brand owners for the year 19-20 and 20-21, the liability of EPR compliances should have been shifted to the medium and large brand owners. However in cases where the medium and large brand owners have not registered on EPR, the liability is still showing with the producers since it has not been transferred to large and medium brand owners. This is putting the producers at a very highly disadvantageous position as the cost of EPR compliances are very high.
